Dinner with the President

A film by Sachithanandam Sathanathan and Sabiha Sumar

Dictator or liberator? General or president? Pakistani filmmaker Sabiha Sumar sits down with former Pakistani President Pervez Musharraf, prior to his resignation, to find answers. In an intimate and hard-hitting interview, the former president discusses his vision for the future of Pakistan and its people, and reveals childhood stories that have shaped his life. This film is the winner of the 2008 Grand Award for Best Documentary at the United Arab Emirates Film Festival.
